Our experiments are worth fortunes to the planters. Let us make your selections for you, many varieties will not fruit here. But our buds are taken from heavy fruit bearing trees. When you buy from us you are assured stock that has had the best of care in growing and handling. We have introduced some of the leading varieties of the day and they are not surpassed by any. There are fortunes in some of them. Try our family orchard collections and have ripe fruit from May until October. Our motto is "the best." Quick transportation by express and parcels post. Write for our catalog or wait for our annual traveling salesmen. We have orchards bearing in all most every county on the plains and in many other localities. ### STOLEN COMEDY

We are told that there are a quarter of a million words in the English language, and we believe it too, for most of them were used last Sunday night by a woman who discovered after coming out of church that her hat was adorned by a tag upon which was written "reduced to $2.98."

When you want full and reliable information on any subject, always apply to a newspaper man, says an exchange from Carrizozo. A farmer recently wrote to his local newspaper asking "what is the matter with my hens? Every morning I find two or three of them under the roost with their toes turned up?" The editor promptly replied: "They're dead."

Last Sunday an Albuquerque father suggested to his daughter that she ought to go to church that evening, the subject of the discourse being, "An Hour of Favorite Hymns" and he expected it would be interesting. "Father," said the daughter with a smile, "I should like very much to go, but I have made an engagement to spend several hours with my favorite him tonight."

His darling was a typo fair, he was her lover true; said he, "you are the type for me, I'll always stick to you. I've had a chase, but now, my own, my take's revised, I guess; and now that love is justified, why let us go to press." The maiden hung her shapely head and whispered in his ear, while both cheeks were rosy red, "the form is ready, dear."

How dear to our hearts are the sad days of springtime, when the annual housecleaning recurs to our view, when we sleep on the sofa and eat off the mantle, in an atmosphere strongly suggestive of glue; we think of the stove-pipe, the soot that came from it and sweet expressions so fluent and fine, but the saddest and most bitter of all recollections is the dusty old carpet that hung on the line. Oh, that dusty old carpet, that rusty old carpet, that hung on the line. We remember how, armed with a lithe flagelator in the morning we blithely advanced to the fray, in the muscular pride of our heart little dreaming, that cleaning that carpet would take the whole day; we sweat and we kicked and our hands badly blistered, while the sun lent his countenance warmly benign, but the harder we pounded the more it was needed by that dusty old carpet that hung on the line! Oh, that dusty old carpet, that rusty old carpet, that hung on the line.

NAMES SOME FAKES

A few fakes, though not the biggest are cited by a Chicago man:

1—When a married couple who do really respect each other but wish to be divorced are compelled to abuse each other's character in order to get a divorce.

2—When the state murders cold-bloodedly and calls it justice.

3—When one who is awaiting to be murdered by the state tries to commit suicide is saved, so it can do justice to him.

But the biggest of all fakes is when one thinks that he knows which the biggest fake is. Can you tell where the end of the earth is?
